THE RHETT HOUSE INN

Welcome to The Rhett House Inn

Thank you for your interest in The Rhett House Inn as the destination setting of your wedding. The AAA Four-Diamond Rhett House Inn is one of the finest historic hotels on the southeast coast, and is a perfect venue for a truly memorable event. The Inn consists of The Thomas Rhett House, which was built c. 1820 by one of South Carolina's wealthiest planters and statesmen; and The Cottage, which was built c. 1864 as a combination school/store for freed slaves. The Rhett House Inn is listed in The National Register of Historic Places, and contains 10 rooms; in 1996 The Cottage was renovated and transformed into 7 additional charming and historic rooms.

Situated one block from the waterfront in the center of Beaufort, South Carolina's 300 year-old National Historic Landmark District, the Inn and its beautiful gardens set the scene for very sophisticated events. Southern Magnolias, flowering Crape Myrtles, and 300 year-old Live Oak trees dripping with moss create a magnificent canopy over our gardens, which are bordered with seasonal flowers and plants. Large white columns grace the sweeping verandas of the Greek Revival Mansion, where guests can enjoy champagne, hors d'oeuvres, and experience the romance and atmosphere of a bygone era. Sunset weddings at The Rhett House Inn take on a magical feeling that is unparalleled - and very romantic and enchanting for the bride, groom, and guests. The following basic information will help you start your planning, and we are here to assist and guide you through the planning and execution of your perfect day.
